

Guidelines for Submissions

Original manuscripts of up to 10,000 words may be submitted for consideration for publication in The Journal of Kanbun Studies in Japan. Authors should submit one hard copy of their manuscript and an electronic version in Microsoft Word; the electronic version may be submitted on disk or by e-mail. (coejimu@nishogakusha-u.ac.jp) JKSJ will duplicate copies for referees. Please also submit an abstract (approx. 200 words). Authors are requested to include a brief biographical statement with their submission.

Manuscripts must be printed double-spaced with notes (also double-spaced) at the end. Graphics and tables should be appended to the document rather than inserted in the text if at all possible. Key terms, important names, and bibliographic references should include original language (i.e. Chinese characters) placed in a separate glossary, not in the body of the essay.

The copyright to articles published in The Journal of Kanbun Studies in Japan belong to the journal.
